MUSSOLINI IS MADE A PRISONER

William L. Shirer who knows the Nazi has expressed it well in these words:

The great Nazi propaganda machine which the evil genius of Hitler and Goebbels built up to bend Germany and the world to their criminal designs was at last crumbling to pieces last week.

Some of its leading lights were dead or silent. Most of the powerful short-wave radio transmitters at Zeesen, near Berlin, which used to bellow the Nazi barge around the world went off the air. The rest were heard only sporadically, with a weak signal, as precious electric power faded or failed. The strident voice of Nazism which even some of our most fortunately placed people had once hailed as the wave of the future became only a whimpering whisper.

And somewhat ironically, it seemed to me, at the very moment Goebbels' propaganda colossus was collapsing, the American people at last woke up to the tragic fact that the tales of the barbaric Nazi atrocities, which they had always dismissed so smugly as "propaganda," were turning out, unfortunately, to be only too true. The ghastly pictures from the German prisoner camps and from the Nazi concentration camps, the frightful scenes which our own trusted radio and newspaper correspondents told of witnessing with their own eyes in these German infernos had finally removed the doubts of the good folk who heretofore could not for their lives believe that Germans (were they not just like any other people,) could torture and murder great masses of innocent human beings like wild beasts.

But not believing, as we oft forget, does not necessarily make a thing untrue. And these past days we at least have been given the stark truth, or rather a confirmation of the truth, by such reporters as Ed Murrow who in one of the most heart-rending broadcasts I've ever heard, last Sunday described the horrors (five hundred beaten, emaciated corpses piled up like cordwood in one little stable) he saw at the notorious concentration camp at Buchenwald where tens of thousands of human beings were tortured to death by German human beings.

And at Buchenwald the most effective kind of re-education of the Germans has started. The American military authorities are seeing to it that German civilians from the nearby city of Weimar are conducted through the camp and made to see the visible evidence of the infamous crimes committed by the regime to which they gave such unstinted support.

But let us not think that this job of re-education will be an easy one, quickly done. Our war correspondents in Germany report that the German people, with a unanimity which is sickening, feel no regret, no sense of guilt for having launched this war and for having laid so much of Europe to waste. And several American reporters have noted how callous the Germans seem to be about the horrors to which the slave laborers and other captives in Germany were submitted. They were callous about this but they whined, the correspondents said, at the awful destruction of their own towns and villages. Such people will not become decent, humanitarian world citizens overnight—a fact which we must keep in mind.

Church of Christ Ladies Thanked For Cookies

Mrs. F. C. Fahrendorf, chairman of Camp and Hospital Council wishes to take this means of thanking the Ladies of the Church of Christ for the delicious cookies they prepared for the boys at McCloskey last week.

Although the quota was 2000, Mrs. Fahrendorf delivered 3,184 cookies last Saturday. She was high in her praise for the way they were prepared and wrapped. They were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Capp McLane of El Campo is visiting relatives in Cameron.

GAUSE IS FIRST TO EXCEED LOAN QUOTA

In a letter to Area Director Oxsheer Smith, Director G. R. Varner calls attention to the meeting of the Seven, the War Loan Directors and Workers held in Cato's Cafe the night of April 11th. At the height of the meeting, Mayor E. A. Camp for Rockdale challenged Gause to be the first in the county to exceed its quota. To put it in the language of one of our former realistic citizens "He hadn't oughtna' done it" as results have shown. In the past Gause has always brought up its quota and has done no boasting about it, perhaps the most outspoken workers of Gause were not in attendance but, be that as it may, Gause did not accept the challenge in words but privately made the statement, "We will get our quota the first two weeks."

On April 21st, San Jacinto Day, Gause not only reached its quota of $21,000 maturity value but exceeded it by $600, no little achievement for a community the size of Gause. Much credit is due for the excellent work done by the Gause Committee composed of L. S. Cunningham, Chairman, Mrs. G. R. Varner, Mrs. Arthur Bowling, Mrs. Dorothy Lummus, Miss Ethel Hardecastle, Mrs. Ariel Kyle, Mrs. Mayme Ditto, Miss Hazle Thomas and Joe Moore.

Milam County makes its bow to Gause as the first community to reach its E bond quota in the Seventh War Loan Drive.

JACKAL OF AXIS POWERS IS NABBED AT SWISS BORDER

Benito Mussolini whom Winston Churchill dubbed the jackal of the axis powers, has been taken prisoner by Italian nationalists near the Swiss border, it was made known late Thursday.

Mussolini and his secretary were in disguise as they sought to enter Switzerland, said the report. In attempting to flee to that neutral country, he crossed a portion of Italy and was nabbed by patriots.

A later report said the Italian windbag who will probably hang by his heels on some prison wall in Rome, had reached Como and was still intact in an abandoned castle.

The Italian people were subjected to German brutalities after Mussolini led his country into war and stabbed France in the back. Fascist Italy was never punished by the Allies for her part in world aggression. The Italians under Mussolini committed many of the current world crimes, especially in their attack on Ethiopia.

The Russians now in Berlin announced late Thursday that Hitler was not in the capital. Allied sources believe that Hitler has already flown to Bavarian hills. There General Patton's 3rd Army and the Russians were converging on the hideout.

Herman Goering who boasted that no bombs would ever fall on Berlin has resigned as head of the German Air Force on account of an acute heart attack, said the report. The German air force is no longer in the air. Like Mussolini's navy at the bottom of the Mediterranean where he reviewed it in a submarine.

Goering was reported to have escaped by plane to an unannounced destination with his wife and daughter.

Flood waters in the Brazos River have damaged the bridge at Port Sullivan and highway there has been closed to traffic.

Guards were posted early Monday, it was announced here. The bridge is an old structure and it was understood was weakened by the sudden rise of the water which might overflow its banks and spread across the bottoms in the direction of Hearne.

OPA Cracks Down on Black Market Deals in Turkeys; More Coming

Continuing its crackdown on persons and firms alleged to have dealt in Thanksgiving turkeys at higher than authorized ceiling prices, the Office of Price Administration this week assessed trebled damage claims against 20 western Michigan producers and two business firms.

Payment totaling $23,479 were made on "black market" sales involving 500,000 pounds of turkeys. OPA officials reported the assessment resulted from several months' investigation of the 1944 Thanksgiving and Christmas turkey deals.

The stiffest payment was made by the Zealand Hatchery, a family partnership owned by DeWitt Brothers of Zealand. This firm paid $6,936.39 in settlement of damages on the sale of 83,230 pounds of turkey.

James H. McLaughlin, OPA enforcement attorney, reported the Ze-land firm delivery dressed turkeys and billed the birds at above ceiling prices. Actually, however, it was found that the firm collected only the legal maximum ceiling, but the regional OPA office ruled that the billing of the shipments at higher than ceiling prices constituted a violation of the price control law. Treble damages were assessed.

Producers selling to the Zealand hatchery at higher than ceiling prices also were assessed. They made settlement in the following amounts:

Sherwin Wilson of Sheridan, $1,070; Mrs. Marian Behrenwald of Lakeview, $1,375.81; John Jonge-grig of Hudsonville, $705.78; Henry Driesenga of Hudsonville, $445.25; Peter Haveman of Hudsonville, $408.78; Herman Berens of Hamilton, $394.46; Charles Parm of Hudsonville, (turn to page four)

New Bond Film Features Talks By U. S. Leaders

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The War Finance Division of the U. S. Treasury has recently released a dramatic film, entitled "Mr. and Mrs. America," stressing the importance of War Bond ownership.

Early highlight of the film is a brief address by President Roosevelt who points out that 85,000,000 Americans have already invested billions of dollars in Bonds.

"Never before," states the President, "have so many people held such a direct share in a great national effort. To save—buy and to hold all we can of War Bonds—this is a small service to ask of us who do not fight. Yet it is one of the biggest things we can do for our fighting men."

Following the President's speech, there is a series of quick cuts of battle action, followed by scenes of first aid, surgery, nursing, convalescence.

"Your War Bond has two sides," says a narrator. "One side fights the war, the other wins the peace . . . your own personal peace."

Philip Murray, President of the C.I.O., declares:

"The great Payroll Savings plan was introduced as a wartime measure to help finance the war and combat inflation. Few of us realized when it was first introduced that it also was a powerful instrument for winning the peace. Through a program of regular savings . . . men and women of America have an unprecedented opportunity to insure themselves of a substantial measure of security."

Next, William Green, President of the A.F.L., states:

"Men of labor know that in organization there is strength and the men and women of America are today organized in a vast War Bond army . . . If we remain united by buying and holding War Bonds until they mature, we shall be taking a great step toward that security we are all looking forward to in the future."

And then Eric Johnston, President of the Chamber of Commerce:

"It takes work and money—lots of it—to keep our giant industries operating at full steam. War Bonds you buy and hold account for a large part of that money today . . . War Bonds you buy today and hold for the future are vital stakes in our America—that is and your America—to-be."

An important part of the movie is an address by Treasury Secretary Morgenthau who, describing the many advantages of E Bonds, makes this unequivocal statement:

"As Secretary of the Treasury, I can assure you that the Government will stand back of this Bond and fulfill every provision of it. It will be paid precisely and exactly according to the terms under which it was issued."

CLOTHING COLLECTION PROGRAM IS EXPLAINED

That the people of this community may better understand the National Clothing Collection, Dan Collins, local director for the collection, gave some important details.

Clothing collection in America is one of the more important war services. In discussing the organization Mr. Collins pointed out:

The United National Clothing Collection is a united effort on the part of UNRRA (United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration) and various voluntary war relief agencies of the United States. The purpose of the Collection is to secure the maximum quantity possible of good used clothing for free distribution to needy and destitute men, women and children in war-devastated countries.

The United National Clothing Collection will be conducted under the sponsorship of a National Committee. President Roosevelt appointed Henry J. Kaiser as National Chairman. The National Committee is composed of representative national leaders of civic organizations, industry, labor, education, religious and other groups.

The National Headquarters of the United National Clothing Collection is at 180 Maiden Lane, New York 5, New York. Henry J. Kaiser is National chairman. Dan A. West is Executive Director. The telephone is Hanover 2-0290.

Throughout war-torn areas clothing is very scarce or threadbare and worn out. More than 125,000,000 people are in liberated or to be liberated nations of Europe which are in dire need of clothing. Of these more than 30,000,000 are children. Because of the demands of armed forces and civilian needs, manufacture of clothing in the U. S. or other countries to relieve those distressed people will not get under way for some time. This means the needy men, women and children in war-devastated countries must depend on the help of the American people.

Vacuum Cleaner Brushes

Keep all brushes of the vacuum cleaner free from hair and threads. When these collect they keep the brush from sweeping and cleaning as it should. Be sure the brush that turns round inside the nozzle has bristles long enough to sweep the rug. These bristles wear down in time, and the brushes or the roll needs to be lowered.

Henry Stefkas of Temple transacted business in Cameron Thursday.

Pfc. R. E. Baker who is with a Marine Corps Division is home from the Pacific visiting relatives and friends in Cameron and Buckholts.

Mrs. E. B. Yager of Ben Arnold was a business visitor Wednesday.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN INDORSE PLAN BOARD

The Cameron Planning Board received the unanimous and enthusiastic approval of the Volunteer Fire Department Thursday night after a program which was preceded by a barbecue at Cato's Cafe.

Members of the Planning Board were invited to the barbecue and Secretary John Andres for the Firemen, called upon the Board to give the program. While the work of the Board is far from finished, a brief outline was given which included only those things the board has thus far discussed.

Mayor Chas. C. Smith, Alderman E. O. Schiller and August Horstmann were honored guests.

H. M. Hefley, of the Planning Board, arranged the program for the evening. On display were architect's drawings of the proposed municipal building, and memorial library, auditorium and museum building.

Firemen are vitally interested in the planning board's work because of the improvements suggested and the fact that the municipal building would provide modern facilities for the firemen, including lockers, showers, quarters and a club room.

Rudolph Richter, former President of the Firemen, moved to endorse the work of the Board and P. W. Davis made the second.

John A. Smith, President of the Firemen, called the meeting to order when the banquet got under way.

Frank Richter, veteran driver of the fire fighting trucks, won a ten inch cigar for being the most "reckless" driver in Texas. The presentation was made by P. W. Davis and the cigar, one of those things we used to see before the war which cost a dollar, was given by Walter F. Plocek and Emmett Streetman.

A. W. McCullin, President of the Chamber of Commerce made a short talk commending Mayor Smith for his forward looking plans in arranging for a Planning Board.

Fire Chief Jack Henderson said he was greatly pleased over the prospects and approved the Planning Board and the work thus far done.

Luther Roberts, veteran and former City Marshal who has returned to the City Police force, was introduced.

J. B. White, Editor and Publisher of The Herald, gave the address for the Planning Board.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Blake and Mrs. Gene Blake attended the Rotary Luncheon in Hearne Thursday.

Miss Maggie Davidson of San Gabriel recently visited her sister, Mrs. R. S. Wiley.

Mrs. C. O. Mayfield of Heidenheimer was in Cameron Wednesday.

3RD ARMY WHEELING TO MOUNTAIN CITADEL

A vast wing of the American Third Army under General George Patton struck suddenly late Sunday in the direction of Bergstakagen, the Hitler hideout in the Bavarian Alps and was within 128 miles of this objective at noon Monday.

From the east the American Seventh Army under General Patch was closing in on Munich the favorite city of the Nazi and the French Army had pressed to the Danube and rapidly a ring of steel was closing around the mountain regions of Bavaria.

Speculation has it that Patton has chosen to bring in Hitler and his Nazi leaders which would perhaps include Goehring, Goebbels and Ribbentrop and perhaps Heinrich Himmler, all reputed to have flown the capital to a hideout.

A German broadcast said Hitler was in Berlin. If so the Russians will get him.

The Red army investing the Germans capital at three points had fought its way to the main section of the city. More than 14 thousand Germans have been killed and an equal number taken prisoners in Berlin, said the broadcast.

Momentarily the forces of General Courtney Hodges and the Russians were due to link west of the German capital.

Only one escape route was left open out of Berlin, a 5 mile path west of the city. The radio in Hamburg issued a plea to the people in Berlin to hold out and stated that both Hitler and Goebbels are in the capital.

Panic has seized Berlin and all Germany.

In Italy the Poe river was in sight of the forces under General Mark W. Clark, now advancing rapidly up the valley with the Germans in retreat.

CLOTHING COLLECTION GAINS MOMENTUM HERE

While interest in the collection of clothing for some 125 million people of all nationalities in Europe was gaining momentum here there was a lack of understanding among many.

Telephone calls have come to The Herald and to Dan Collins, Chairman of the drive, asking what to do with clothing.

It was plainly published last week that if you have clothing to be picked up call anyone of the following telephone numbers: 399, 612 or 308.

If your energy cannot measure up to the necessity of gathering up the things you wish to give, chances are you will have no share in this great humanitarian program. The men who have agreed to call for your clothing are busy too, and sometime very tired. They cannot go into your homes and pick out clothing. You will have to do that yourself.

Evergreens Require Plant

Food for Good Health

Many gardeners seem to feel that evergreens require entirely different feeding methods than do other types of plants. This is a mistaken idea. Evergreens, like all other plants, require a complete, balanced plant food for maximum health and beauty. It is true, however, that they do not require as large an amount of plant food as deciduous plants.

Feeding improves the color of ornamental evergreen trees. It results in denser needle growth. All varieties show a more intense color and the coloring is more uniform. Feeding is especially beneficial in giving Blue Spruce an excellent blue color.

If your plants are small, use two pounds of complete plant food for every hundred square feet of bed area, raking or hoeing the plant food into the soil, and water thoroughly. If plants are medium size, from four to five feet tall, apply complete plant food at the rate of four pounds per hundred square feet of bed area. For single specimen trees, use one and one-half to two pounds of plant food per inch of diameter of the trunk (measurement taken about two feet from the surface of the ground). Mix plant food with an equal volume of loam soil and apply in holes eighteen inches deep, bored or punched in the soil at intervals around the tree, being sure not to come closer than twelve inches to the base of the tree.

R. L. BATTE IMPROVED

R. L. Batte who has been critically ill for days at Cameron Hospital was slightly improved Monday, having shown some recovery over Sunday. Friends will be glad to have this news.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Glass have received word from their son, Pvt. Donald Glass informing them that he has landed safely in France. Pvt. Glass is with the Headquarters Department.

Henry J. Kaiser

says:

"Americans have shown what they can do with their minds and hands in producing the ships, planes, guns, tanks, ammunition and all the materials needed to crush the Axis hordes. Now, in this month of April, America will show what Americans can do with their hearts in providing the clothing needed to relieve the suffering millions of people in war-torn countries. It is good to know that every American family will do its share."

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT chose Mr. Henry J. Kaiser as National Chairman of the United National Clothing Collection for just one reason: He knows this famous industrialist as a man who gets things done.

But Mr. Kaiser will need help—if the goal of 150 million pounds of serviceable used clothing is to be attained this month.

He will need, indeed, help and contributions from every American family throughout the land.

Today, in Europe alone, 125 million men, women, and children are in desperate need of the forgotten usable clothes that hang in the closets or repose in the attics of America's homes.

In some areas, deaths from exposure are as great as those from starvation.

These innocent people have given their homes, their jobs, their happiness, their health—for the same lasting Peace we are fighting for. They need your spare clothing now. Will you give it to them?

What YOU can do!

1. Get together all the serviceable summer and winter clothing you can spare. This includes: Men's, women's, children's, and infants' wear, and shoes. Overcoats, topcoats, suits, dresses, shirts, skirts, jackets, pants, work clothes, gloves, underwear, sleeping garments, robes, sweaters, shawls, and all knit goods. Also blankets, bedclothes.
2. Take your contribution to your local COLLECTION DEPOT now or arrange to have your LOCAL COMMITTEE collect it before April 30th.
3. Support your Local Committee not only with your clothing contribution, but also with your time, effort, and energy.

WHAT CAN YOU SPARE
THAT THEY CAN WEAR?

Four Billions In E Bonds Goal In 7th War Loan

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"In the Seventh War Loan your government is asking for the largest sum in investments by individuals in the history of America. Of the $7,000,000,000 individual goal, $4,000,000,000 is to be in E Bonds," Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. recently said in announcing the Advance Payroll Savings drive. The Secretary further stated:

"To meet this unprecedented but vitally necessary E Bond quota, the American worker, through the payroll savings plan, is being called upon for increased allotments and extra cash War Bond purchases to a greater extent than in any previous drive.

"War is the grimmest and greatest of human endurance tests. The side that wins, in the final analysis, is the side that is in there working and fighting at the end—the side with the stamina and the spirit to endure the long and terrible ordeal."

Sec. Morgenthau

"The present war imposes its test no less upon civilians than upon the men in the armed services. Victory goes inevitably to the side whose men and women, in and out of uniform, stick longest and most unwaveringly to the performance of their jobs.

"There has been a fundamental change in the nature of the war. There is no limited objective now. The objective is total victory. The nearer we drive toward the enemy's heart, the costlier the war becomes. As we begin to go all out against the Japanese, so will our costs increase due to greater distances.

"I know that Americans need no appeal to meet the demands of the Seventh War Loan. The way for each of us here at home to meet these demands is through increasing War Bond purchases, unceasing devotion to his duty and his job and through a vivid knowledge that to win we must sacrifice."

"Our response to the Seventh War Loan will be the vindication to these men of their faith in us."

TO THOSE INDEBTED OR HOLDING CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE OF SOPHIE ALBERT, DECEASED:

GERMANS SAY BLOODY BATTLES ARE LOOMING

Red artillery was throwing shells into the streets of Berlin at noon Thursday said a German broadcast.

The Germans had rallied their armies on the Western front and had pushed the 9th Army under General Simpson back 15 miles.

The 90th Division of Texans and Oklahomans were being fought bitterly and bearing the brunt of the great thrust by the American 3rd into Czechoslovakia.

The world would not have to wait long now before the battle for Berlin is under way. The Germans this morning said they would make of it the bloodiest battle in history.

Hitler from some secure place hurled out a fanatical tirade against the Russians, calling upon women, children and old men and what is left of the German army to give the Bolshevik hordes a bath in their own blood.

The German radio said that the Reds were in 12 miles of the Capital.

British newspaper flared up with atrocity stories as hundreds of thousands of Allied prisoners of war were being liberated from German torture camps.

In many areas German civilians were being marched into the torture areas to see the wasted bodies of Americans and Russian and British captives; to see their bodies hanging from military gallows and the burned bones and ashes from their cremated bodies.

It is now certain that while some Germans try to blame the Nazi, in fact it has been German people themselves who have stood by and condoned these crimes.

Combat Mildew

Mildewing of surfaces may occur in almost any region in a period of dampness, but is especially prevalent in warm, humid climates. On the paint film, mildew takes the form of a deposit, usually black, which spreads as the spores continue to germinate. Paint manufacturers have found that certain steps can be taken in the formulation of paint of a type which can go a long way toward preventing mildew from attacking the paint film. Zinc oxide and mercury are among the leading mildew deterrents used in mildew resistant paint.

TURKEYS

$386.16; William Driesenza of Hudsonville, $238.41; Carl Haveman of Zeeland, $151.65; Charles Gustafson of Holland, $161.35; John Haveman of Hudsonville, $56.70.

Adam Zoeller of Nunica, a producer who sold 33,071 pounds of turkeys to the Wolverine Poultry Company of Detroit at alleged black market price, settled the OPA damage claim at $4,664.07. Two executives of the Detroit firm previously had been prosecuted in February District Court in Detroit.

Three other producers were penalized for alleged black market sales to the Farmers Commission House of Battle Creek. They made settlements in the following amounts: Leon D. Fleming of Pennville, $76.30; Preston W. Hogancamp of Pennville, $57.57; Albert Gracker of Holland, $39.29.

Information from usually reliable sources indicated the OPA investigators were hot on the trail of many other black market operations in Michigan turkeys at Thanksgiving and Christmas. OPA officials became highly suspicious of the 1944 turkey deal when it was found that the movement through regular trade channels was abnormally light in the face of a known increase in the turkey crop.

This led to a systematic investigation of all sales and the discovery of evidence pointing to black marketing on a wholesale basis. It was reported that the poultry industry and produce trade will hear OPA echoes of the 1944 turkey deal all summer and will have enough costly reminders by fall to cause the bulk of the 1945 turkey crop to move to market through trade channels at legal maximum prices or less.—The Produce Packer.

AAA Urges Farmers To Make Report on Winter Cover Crops

The Agricultural Adjustment Association has issued the following urgent statement regarding winter cover crops:

The closing date for reporting winter cover crops (oats, rye, barley, Ryegrass, winter peas, vetch and sweet clover) is May 15, 1945. In order to receive credit for this practice, these seedings must have been done in the fall of 1944. We suggest that these crops be reported to the AAA office as soon as possible to eliminate a last minute rush on the 15th.

We also suggest that if you have not signed a form 45-SR-81, you should do so at your earliest convenience.

Miss Ida Foster, student at State University, Austin, spent the week end here with her parents.

An American Romance Vital, Inspiring Film

Wherever the history of the American movie is discussed from this day on, the new picture at the Cameron Theatre Thursday and Friday will without question be an important factor.

As Steve Dangos, Brian Donlevy plays a Slovenian immigrant who comes to the United States just before the turn of the century. He goes West to make his fortune, marries an American-born girl and they work hard. As their children grow up, Steve moves up through the ranks from the steel mill. With great vision, he sets out to produce a new type of automobile body, and the immigrant becomes an influential man in American industry. Through the first World War and into the second, Steve and Anna and their children are part of America. This is "An American Romance," the motion picture, and it portrays too the fields and forests, the mountains and lakes and rivers that are the United States.

Thrive Indoors

Despite their hardy nature, cacti and other succulents require care if they are to thrive indoors. To grow luxuriantly, they need a combination of half sand and half leaf mold, or sand and rich topsoil. During the winter, cacti need little water. Keep them in a southern exposure. In spring they should be watered and given a plant food. When planting cactus, allow it to remain somewhat dry until new roots develop. If the soil is wet, the roots will rot. Spindly growth usually results from excess water and improper light.

SGT. SEBESTA IS HERO WITH PATTON'S ARMY

WITH THE 3RD ARMORED DIVISION IN GERMANY—Tech Sgt. Ernest J. Sebesta, 36th Armored Infantry Regiment, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sebesta, Cameron, has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action during the fierce hedge-row fighting in Normandy.

His citation states that on July 9, 1944, while an enemy patrol infiltrated friendly lines and opened fire with machine pistols at fifteen feet upon a headquarters group and platoon, Sgt. Sebesta left his position of safety in a ditch by the side of a road and opened fire with his M1 rifle.

Though the enemy fire was overwhelming and at extremely close range, Sgt. Sebesta, from a standing position, fired 8 rounds from his rifle and succeeded in killing two of the enemy. The remainder of the enemy patrol fled and in exposing himself to the heavy enemy fire, Sgt. Sebesta undoubtedly saved the life of his company commander and platoon leads, both of whom were pinned down and unable to move.

Sgt. Sebesta entered the Service at Dallas, in June 1941, and was assigned to the 36th Armored Regiment of the now famous "Spearhead" Third Armored Division shortly after its activation at Camp Polk, La. Sgt. Sebesta, recently appointed First Sergeant of Company A holds the coveted Combat Infantryman Award for outstanding soldiering with the Third Armored Division since Normandy.

Silver Star Award Is Announced for T-Sgt. Ernest J. Sebesta

To T-Sgt. Ernest J. Sebesta, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sebesta of Cameron, has been awarded the following medals: The Purple Heart, and the Silver Star, for gallantry in action. Both medals have been received by his parents.

T-Sgt. Sebesta's division commander, General Maurice Rose, was recently murdered by the Germans and before his death pinned the Silver Star on Sgt. Sebesta.

Sgt. Sebesta is a veteran of the famous 3rd Army and is also wearer of the Combat Infantry Badge.

Born and reared in Cameron, Sgt. Sebesta volunteered in 1941, and was inducted in Oklahoma, assigned to a branch of the 3rd Armored Division, he received training at the following camps: Camp Polk, La., Camp Young, Calif., Camp Pickett, Va., and then embarked for overseas duty.

He landed in England where he received more training and entered the fighting in the invasion, and on through France where he was wounded and received the Purple Heart and was cited for military merit.

In November of 1944, he was given a short leave which he spent in Paris, France. Sgt. Sebesta wrote interestingly of the famous city and its buildings and sent home small souvenirs of his visit.

Going back into action he won the Silver Star for gallantry in action.

The Silver Star is the second highest Army decoration. A veteran of many hard fought battles under the capable leadership of Commanding General, Maj. Gen. Maurice Rose, and the famed leader of the 3rd U. S. Army, General George Patton, Sgt. Sebesta is looking forward to the day when he can return to Cameron and be with his many friends. He sends his best wishes.

Sgt. Sebesta has served 18 months overseas, making a total of 3 years and 9 months of service in the United States Army.

Cow Takes in More Air Daily Than Food

Dairy cows, like people, need to sleep with the windows of the dairy barn left open. However, important as fresh air is to the dairy cow, the elimination of moisture from the atmosphere inside the stable is about as important, declares W. W. Yapp of the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

A cow expels from 12 to 18 pounds of moisture each day in the air she breathes out. This large amount of moisture has to go somewhere. It is usually deposited on the litter, walls and ceiling of the stable. With quantities of moisture and relatively warm temperatures, the health of animals may be endangered. When barn temperatures are below 50 degrees, the moisture condenses on walls and ceiling. Such conditions are not desirable.

The dairy specialist pointed to the large quantity of air a cow breathes. A 1,000-pound cow inhales from 115 to 224 pounds of air every 24 hours, and this is almost twice as much as the water or food she consumes. These figures indicate that a cow must breathe in and breathe out about 3,542 cubic feet of air per hour. On the basis of these figures, it would require an air duct slightly more than 2 feet square through which air was passing at a velocity of 290 to 300 feet per minute to supply fresh air for 20 cows.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marek, Ed Johnson and Miss Ann Juruska all of Temple, and Miss Ann Laffere of Cameron attended the Ice Capades at Fort Worth Thursday.

Fine Hot Rolls Add

Zest to Simple Meal

Fine light hot rolls can lift the simplest everyday meal to a "Sunday" level. Of course they must be good hot rolls, and food specialists suggest some rules to follow, whether you use the straight dough method or the sponge method.

If you vary your flour type, using whole wheat, graham, rye or soya flour, it is important to check amounts used. Dough made of these flours should be softer than for white bread; therefore the proportionate amount of flour is less.

In determining desired results, you may wish to sacrifice some of the lightness obtained by using water, to nutritious quality gained by using milk, or you may go all out for a tender, fluffy product by using potato water or mashed potatoes.

Eggs make the dough richer, and give a slightly crisp crust that is somewhat flaky and tender. Sugar and salt are flavor ingredients, and fat improves both flavor and texture. Be sure to use all these ingredients in proper amounts for the best results. Salt retards the rising process; too much sugar promotes toughness, but does help the dough to rise more quickly. Correct temperature is important during the mixing and rising process and should never be higher than 90 degrees F. Use a thermometer if possible; if not, then remember that 80 degrees will feel cool, not warm, to the skin.

Thrip Resistant

It has also been found that certain varieties of gladiolus are more susceptible to thrips than others. The gladiolus least affected by thrip are included in the group whose bloom time runs from 75 to 85 days, while the average bloom time for the group most susceptible to thrip is from 95 to 100 days. Giant Nymph has been found to be entirely resistant by some gladiolus growers. Other varieties which do not seem to become infested seriously are: Bit of Heaven, Joyful, Maid of Orleans, Picardy, Polar Ice, Rima. Keep your gladiolus well fed with a complete, balanced plant food, when planting in rows, dig the trench two inches deeper than needed and replace about 1½ inches of loose soil. Then apply plant food at the rate of one pound (equivalent to one pint) per twenty feet of trench. Mix the plant food thoroughly with the loose soil, cover with about one-half inch of soil and set the bulbs in. Feed again at budding time with half the amount, and once more after blooming.

Chicken Preparation

Chicken, the great American favorite, may be prepared in many ways. Some of the most widely used methods of preparation are: Chicken pie, roast chicken and dressing, broiled chicken, fried chicken, baked chicken with either rice or mushroom sauce, fricassee of chicken, creamed chicken on toast or in potato baskets, chicken salad, chicken sandwiches, chicken soup and many other tasty variations of some of these methods of preparation. Gravies made from the giblets and soup made from cracking and recocking the bones, help as meat extenders.

Washing Earthenware

To wash earthenware rinse as soon as empty with water the temperature of the dish and set in room temperature surface to cool, before placing in the sink. Never put hot pottery under cold faucet or plunge into cold water, or handle with wet cloth. If you have been cooking a strong-flavored food like fish or onions wash earthenware in hot suds, sprinkle utensil and its cover with baking soda. After a little, wipe with absorbent paper toweling, wash and dry.

Freezing Tenderizers

Formation of ice crystals within the fibers of meat that is frozen, resulting in splitting of the fibers, is believed to be the explanation of the "tenderizing" effect of sharp freezing of meat.

Edith Lee Baldrige Celebrates Birthday

Miss Edith Lee Baldrige was honored on her 12th birthday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Baldrige, 1409 North Travis Street Monday afternoon, April 2, 1945, from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

The Easter Motif was carried out in the form of invitations, plate favors and home decorations with pink and white colors predominating.

To get the party in full swing each guest was given either pink or white crepe paper to make a party cap according to their own idea, and there were a number of queer styles when all had finished. Edith Lee, the honoree, had the best cap according to the opinion of her guests, and was presented a box of map colors. Ronald Hudson won high score in the next game and was given a scrap book. After this everyone stood and sang "Happy Birthday to You" as an aunt of Edith's entered the room and presented a box filled with gifts for her. As she opened each package she found them to be very pretty and useful. She expressed her thanks to each guest in her own sweet way. After admiring the gifts they were invited into the dining room where the table was arranged with a place for each and centered with a large bowl of honeysuckle and roses. The refreshments consisted of sandwiches, cheezits, ice tea and the birthday cake. The plate favors were tiny

Those present to wish for her many happy returns of the happy occasion were: Claudell Robinson, Lynn Obermiller, Betty Rose Clark, Eva Lou Hickman, Joyce Cass, Billie June Williams, Marie Hearne, Wilma Faye Baldrige, Ronald Hudson, Freddie Johns, Alfred Price, Jr., B. R. Fletcher, Wayne Clark, Mrs. John Patterson and Buddy, Mrs. J. C. Patterson, the honoree, her mother and baby sister.

A BOY DIED LAST NIGHT...

A BOY died last night. It doesn't make much difference now about his name. It might have been your son, your brother, your husband. The important thing is that he died, in poignant and awful loneliness out somewhere on a waste of sand, out in a starless silence, 10,000 miles from home.

"Missing in action" read an obscure line in this morning's communique. That was all. Now he lies there, a crumpled, twisted mass of flesh, that yesterday was his body. The fine head and the shining face and the broad shoulders remain only in a picture that looks out upon a quiet living-room on a shaded street an eternity away.

Last night, in those agonizing hours of unspeakable isolation, he went through a thousand deaths without the one thing that might have helped a little—the sound of a familiar voice, the pat of a friendly hand. Many people died last night in their beds at home, surrounded by those who cared. Last night he died in utter desolation in an unimaginable loneliness.

The pain was terrible enough. But then there had to be that dreadful burden of thought in those endless last hours. Mom and Pop. The flowers blooming again in the backyard. The good old roadster in the driveway. That last sweetheart kiss at the station. Those dances last summer. That half-finished letter in his blouse. All those plans for the future. Couldn't somebody find him, please? The wracking pain again.

Too much for you, all this? But it really happened last night, just like that. It's going to happen a thousand times—ten thousand times, and perhaps a million times in the nights to come. If people could only understand it. If they would just grind deep into their thinking the stark, terrible reality of it, every petty, selfish interest would be swept away. They would sacrifice anything and everything just to make themselves worthy of that boy.

He died last night, you see. There's no way to get around that.

REDS OCCUPY HALF OF THE GERMAN CAPITAL

Fanatical Nazi were shooting each other in a mass orgy of bloodshed as Berlin was fast being consumed by fire and flame and the Red Army now occupying over half of what was once one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

Berlin, seat of the Nazi government in Germany, was not being surrendered as at first thought, but instead is being defended in a house to house last ditch stand. Russian artillery and tanks are blasting away and it was predicted that no buildings would be left in the city. The city of more than 4 million people was a blackened rubble heap and thousands of dead Germans littering the streets as buildings toppled under Russian artillery. The beasts of Berlin who brought ruin and disaster at Stalingrad were perishing in their own blood. Nazi were shooting nazi when attempts were made to surrender. At noon Tuesday the Reds had occupied over half the city. War at last had come home to the German Reich.

The Red army was driving across Austria and was within 89 miles of Berchtesgaden the Alpine hideout of Adolph Hitler.

The Third Army under General George Patton was within 110 miles of the Alpine hideout and from the southwest the French and the American 7th under General Patch were pushing toward the Bavarian Alps. The Americans had crossed the Danube river.

It was revealed that Marshal Petain who became the collaborationist ruler of France under Germany occupation, is in Switzerland and is ready to surrender to French officers. He will be returned to France to face trial for treason to the Republic.

Pierre Laval, the French Premier, under Petain who is hated by the French as a traitor, was refused admittance to Switzerland and like some of Nazi was turned back at the border to be with his German pals in the last hours of death in the Reich. It was said at noon that King Leopold of Belgium was expected to present himself for admittance into Switzerland at any hour. His surrender in Belgium without consulting the British brought on Dunkirk.

A news blackout was imposed over the 5th and 8th Armies in Italy but both were gathering strength for a great advance up the valley of the Po river.

There has been no advance on Okinawa. The island has been visited by Admiral Nimitz who expressed satisfaction.

The War Department has announced that all men over 41 who request it will be discharged.

Expansive Industry

When war broke out in Europe, the motor industry was using a preponderant share of the production of many raw materials: 51 per cent of malleable iron, 75 per cent of plate glass, 63 per cent of upholstery leather and 80 per cent of rubber. In addition, the automobile took more than 18 per cent of the steel output, approximately 10 per cent of aluminum, some 13 per cent of copper and 34 per cent of lead.

Albert Schlemmer of Belmena was a Cameron visitor Saturday.

WORLD CONFERENCE TO OPEN ON WEDNESDAY

The Peace Conference at San Francisco will open Wednesday as scheduled but with the big 3, United States, Russia and Great Britain still unable to agree on the seating of Polish delegates.

In Washington conferences between President Truman and the representative of Russia and Britain had failed to reach an agreement.

President Truman will address the delegates to formally open the meeting which is to fix terms of peace for the Axis and dispose of many world problems, including punishment of the Germans and Japs for their atrocities, indemnities and occupation duties of the Allied armies.

Mrs. W. A. Brady of Temple, has concluded a visit here with Mrs. Emma Butts. Dr. Long of Austin, and son, were also guests in the home of Mrs. Butts during the Presbyterian assembly here the past week.

SGT. WELDON TURNER REACHES HOME HERE

Sgt. Weldon Turner, held a prisoner by the Germans for several months and who was liberated by American army forces recently in the fighting in Germany, reached his home in Cameron late Thursday.

Sgt. Turner is the first Cameron man who was held a prisoner by the Germans to return home. Cpl. Alfred A. Simecek who was held a prisoner by the Japs for 33 months, is at McCloskey Hospital after a brief visit here with home folks.

The Herald hopes to bring Sgt. Turner's story but due to the fact he has just arrived home, an interview may not be arranged before the beginning of the week.

Sgt. Turner had written his mother a number of letters while held by the Germans. He was said to be feeling fine despite his experiences and will soon regain his full strength.

Several of Cameron's citizens attended the May Fete at the Buckholts Gymnasium Friday night.

Mrs. Emma Moore attended the funeral of Mrs. Smith of Mayafeld.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Dan Culpin Gets His Second Wind

Dan Culpin got his plowing done in record time this year. He was sitting on his porch, enjoying a well-deserved glass of beer, while Bob Wirts, his neighbor, still had over an acre to go.

It burned Bob up, seeing Dan relaxed while he worked. So he'd stop and have a glass of cider—and make out that he was in no hurry anyway.

"And that was the trouble," Dan explained to me. "I kept on going till I got my second wind; and saved my rest until the job was done. He stopped to rest—and he never got his second wind."

From where I sit, there's a moral there for all of us. We've been working hard to win this war. A little rest may look awfully tempting. But by keeping going, by never letting up, we can count on getting our second wind that will overcome weariness and see us through to victory.

SAY ARMIES BREAKING UP FAST BEFORE BERLIN

The Germans Saturday forecast their own collapse and it might come at any moment. The Germans said at noon Saturday that their armies are deteriorating rapidly before the capital which is the only sector in which any considerable resistance is being shown.

The Red Army is expected to make a break through at any time. It was said that the Reds have been shelling the German capital for three days and have massed 2 million fighting men to storm the city.

The long expected junction of Russian and American forces was announced. The Americans and the Russians can make a junction at will and this alone would indicate that the Germans are through on the approaches to the capital.

General George Patton's 3rd Army was meeting savage resistance in the south. The 3rd Army was near the Bavarian sector where Hitler and most of the war criminals are reported to have taken refuge. Many expect General Patton to capture Hitler and all the big shot Nazi.

Winston Churchill in London said that Britain would not celebrate in any manner until Japan is destroyed.

Bitter fighting continues on Okinawa. Admiral Nimitz has revealed that the United States lost 15 ships since March 15, including 5 destroyers and the Japs have lost 100 in the same period.

General MacArthur whose armies have killed more of the enemy than any other in this war said Saturday 5 thousand Japs have been killed thus far in Sabu Island in the Philippines.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "times" to come.

2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Food For FREEDOM

Well do we remember the early program of food production when war came and the government turned to the farms of America for production.

The Farms did not fail, they won't fail in the present crisis. In this present year of 1945 you shall hear more and more about the Patriots of the Soil. The man who makes 10 acres of potatoes grow and digs for Victory and Freedom in the soil is as much a fighting man as the soldier who mops up the outposts in the global war.

Our job here in the farm country is not only to produce but to preserve what we produce.

RUSSIANS HOLD ALMOST TWO THIRDS OF CITY

A battle which had become a slaughter in the suburbs of the city was becoming more violent by the hour Wednesday as Russian troops held two thirds of Berlin.

Hitler's hideout in the Bavarian Alps was bombed.

The Germans were showing no signs of surrender but were fighting the Russians in every quarter of the city which is being systematically destroyed.

Nazi troops in fanatical zeal were popping out of subways and hideouts in the rear of the Reds and the battle was a wild confusion. There was little or no organized resistance. The German army appeared to be through although Dr. Joseph Goebbels was pleading with the Berliners to resist and that help was on the way.

The Berlin-Hamburg railway had been cut.

The Third U. S. Army has reached the Danube river and was 82 miles from Hitler's reputed headquarters.

The Germans were reeling in Italy and the 5th and 8th Allied armies had crossed the Po river.

The Americans were pushing the Japs back on the east end of the battle line on Okinawa.

Expansion of Rural Telephone Service Is Outlined

A goal of 165,000 new farm telephones, to be installed in the five years following the war, has been set by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, according to E. C. Crittenden, Jr., Manager. Completion of this program will result in three times as many farm telephones as there are at present in the communities served by the company, Crittenden said.

This rural expansion is part of the Bell System's One Hundred Million Dollars postwar plan for adding 1,000,000 telephones on farms and for improving the farmers' present telephone service. The rural service program is a continuation of one which was started several years ago but which was interrupted by the war.

One of the most important developments in rural telephony, Mr. Crittenden said, is a means of furnishing telephone service over electric power lines. In this way, farms which are situated along power lines, but are not near telephone lines, can get telephone service. Experiments in this method began in 1938 and were actively under way until shortly before Pearl Harbor, when the Bell Telephone Laboratories started developing all its time to work for the armed forces.

Sending telephone conversations over electric wires, according to Mr. Crittenden, applies a technique using high frequency currents which has been perfected over many years by the Bell System for other uses. Being of high frequencies, these telephone currents can pass over the power line at the same time the power currents do, without interference.

In the power line carrier, a telephone current, traveling along an electric power line, is taken from the power line by means of a "carrier coupler" near a farmhouse. The current is then carried over a pair of telephone wires to the telephone.

To accomplish this, Crittenden said involves the use of electronic apparatus at or near the telephone central office and in the customer's house. The customer's equipment will resemble a small table-model radio.

Power line carriers will give the same types of telephone service as the present wire circuits do. The customer will make and receive calls in the same way that he does now on wire lines. The Manager stated that experiments in this system will be continued as soon as men and equipment are available again. He said the Bell Telephone Companies are co-operating with the Rural Electrification Administration and with private power companies in working out the power line carrier.

Another improvement in rural service, Mr. Crittenden said, is the use of high-strength steel wire for telephone lines, allowing telephone poles to be placed from 350 to 450 feet apart instead of the former 150 to 200 feet. This method, developed before the war, has been in use even during the war because of the saving in other materials.

Other new methods of giving better telephone service to farmers after the war, Crittenden said, will include improvements in transmission, in ringing, and in signaling the operator, and cutting down the number of parties on a line where necessary for better service.

Telephone men are now making field surveys to find out the best methods of extending and improving service in different types of farming areas. In order to have the latest information on the telephone needs and desires of farm families, several thousand are being asked for their opinions and suggestions on particular features of telephone service, Crittenden said.

Flax Seed

Approximately two-thirds of the world's flax is grown for seed. Only approximately one-third of the flax is used for fiber. The flax used for fiber produces seed as well and is therefore a minor source of flax seed for commercial purposes. Flax grown for seed may yield some low-grade fiber as a byproduct which is used principally for paper. The large acreage of flax in Argentina, India and the United States is grown almost entirely for seed. In Russia 10 to 20 per cent of the acreage is grown primarily for seed and the remainder is grown for fiber. Russia, the Baltic countries, and Poland together have produced 85 per cent of the world's estimated production of fiber during the three years preceding World War II.
